By ourselves, we poor Italians couldn't have done anything about it. Seen from the perspective of an eternal truth, therefore, human art may avoid to fall into insignificant relativity to the extent in which it is ready to recognize its only relative status and to the extent in which, on the basis of this recognition, it is ready to enter into dialogue with the logos. If done frequently, it can build endurance, coordination, and lighter footwork. That turned out to be a huge understatement.
