By: Rick Renner. Books help us understand who we are and how we are to behave. There was a green, lovely forest, a lovely river, a purple mountain, high voices singing, and Rima, lovely and mysterious, lurking in the trees with colorful flights of butterflies, like animated bouquets, lingering in her long hair. After describing this building which gave a rough looking appearance because of the two by four board studding, I must relate some of the work and activities that took place here and which stand out in my memory. In the ensuing years, while working as a consulting psychologist for the state mental health authority in New Jersey, he studied psychoanalysis in New York City and Philadelphia, while also undergoing his own analysis with Theodore Reik.
