In German this is very useful. The sea is a primeval force, which has retained the power to wreak havoc on the shore when it is roused. He reveres everything that he knows of himself: such a morality is self-aggrandizement. If Eastern Christians still tend to speak in terms of an independent mission of the Spirit and Western Christians of the single mission of the incarnate Word, both are able to recognize the full involvement of the triune God in the sanctification both of the eucharistic elements and of the faithful.
