Delicate Creature: A Fantastic Victorian Adventure

Nothing but new what-for'snothing but new how-to'sno common formula any more, misunderstanding and mistrust bound up together, decay, spoilage and the highest aspirations frightfully entangled, the genius of the race overflowing from all the cornucopias of good and bad, an ominous simultaneity of Spring and Autumn, full of new charms and mysteries peculiar to the new, still unexhausted, still unwearied corruption [of morals]. If we turn back to the life of the Apostle Paul, we find a very potent example of this problem of disappointed hopes.
