Vygotsky gave in his colorful language an ironic example of answering scientifically wrong questions: One can multiply the number of citizens of Paraguay with the number of versts [an obsolete Russian unit of length] from Earth to Sun and divide the result with the average length of life of an elephant and conduct this whole operation without a flaw even in one number; and yet the number found in the operation can confuse anybody who would like to know the national income of that country. Their uneasy, messy menage-a-trois persists until Madalina decides to choose between her two men. Kebab explores some of the harsher realities of immigration and what people are willing to give up in the hope of a better life.

Perdone que lo moleste. Rising inflation combined with the already high prices of designer personal accessories mean that a common middle class person tends to treat a personal accessory like say sunglasses or watches as a once in a lifetime buy. Love and death pervades pop psychology and is everywhere in film, for example in Woody Allen's wacky Love and Death and Marguerite Duras's La maladie de la mort. In High Noon Gary Cooper, must face the man who hates me. In Duel in the Sun, branded lust in the dust when it was released Gregory Peck and Jennifer Jones shoot and wound each other from a distance at Squaw's Head Rock before her slow, tortured crawl up the rock toward him and their last rendezvous. Most appropriate for high school learners, the lessons have been field tested
